GOVERNMENT'S MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

The United States, by and through the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Texas, files its Motion to Continue the response to the Court's Order (Dkt. 235) requesting additional information as to their 404(b) Notice and Trial Brief on the Admissibility of Extraneous Offenses (Dkt. 234) which is presently scheduled for January 22, 2019, and in support thereof would respectfully show as follows:

The trial of this matter was continued to April 8, 2019. Additionally, the government's response to the Amended Motion to Compel is due on February 22, 2019. The government is currently waiting on additional information and has not received the documentation.

This motion is not made for delay but so that justice may be done.

The government hereby respectfully requests that this Court enter an Order continuing this response until February 22, 2019.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH D. BROWN
United States Attorney
